LARGE CASKET ORDERS BY U. S.

Millions of identification tags, as well as huge contracts for caskets, were made by the war department immediately upon passage of the selective service act.

The proportion of caskets to the mortality rate of soldiers in time of peace was so out of the ordinary, that it led to immediate conclusion by congressional observers,

Peter's Denial of Jesus

(Over KGB — 1360 — Tuesday 8:30 pm)

FRED—I saw a picture in the daily papers where a man had a sign tacked on a broom and was picketing in front of his restaurant.

DAD—Yes, I saw it in the TRIBUNE the other day. There was also the picture of the woman, with her sign, who was picketing the Unique Cafe on Third avenue near the Plaza. The AFL wants to force the cafe owner to sign a closed shop contract, but instead, he decided to picket the pickets.

FRED—In the picture his sign reads: THOSE PICKETS NEVER WORKED HERE — OUR EMPLOYEES ARE SATISFIED—. Dad, were you not the first person to picket pickets by carrying an old broom on your shoulder in front of the Golden Lion cafe about five years ago.

DAD—Yes, Fred. I started the picketing of pickets to give them a dose of their own medicine, now it is being done all over the U. S.

FRED—I can't quite get the idea why you have been picketing the Post Office. What good does it do? It does not change the policy of the U. S. towards England, Russia and Germany.

DAD—Fred, did you ever read in the New Testament about the Apostle Peter who promised high and low to be faithful and loyal to Jesus, on the day of His trial before the Herodes and the Highpriest of the Jews?

FRED—Yes, I read about it; but when the trial came Peter denied his friend and teacher and then the cock crowed, just as Jesus had foretold.

DAD—How did that scene impress you, Fred?

FRED—I would not care to be put on the spot, as Peter was.

DAD—But I learned something else from it, my boy. When I read it and placed myself in Peter's position I vowed to myself that I would never deny my individual convictions in matters of religion, principle or duty, no matter who the caskets were not ordered to meet the needs of ordinary deaths in a large peace time army, but were made in anticipation of the needs of an expeditionary force in a shooting war.

The selective service act was passed with the assurance it was to train soldiers for one year only, while this was merely a blind to get them into the army for the "duration" where the caskets would be needed.

threatened me. Peter's highest duty was to stand by his teacher in the hour of danger, but he failed. Our highest duty as Americans is to stand by the Constitution in the hour of danger and to make sure that I am personally not afraid to stand by my oath of allegiance, in spite of all the terroristic propaganda and war hysteria which is scaring people into a state of mind that they imagine it un-American to stand for America first. I have taken that sign and walked up and down three Thursdays in succession during the noon hour. Peter could not have saved the life of Jesus by confessing Him, but at least he could have saved his own self-respect. And while I did not change the policy of the administration by expressing my attitude openly and fearlessly in public, before the Federal Office Building, I did my duty as a free American citizen, to make sure that I am not a coward in my heart. You must understand the spiritual law of life, Freddy. God has given us many talents and with it many duties. If we dare not exercise them for fear of reprisals then we lose our faculty for exercising them. So whenever a terroristic atmosphere is being produced by events and propaganda which frightens people into surrendering their rights, then, to make sure that I have not given up my personal right in the matter, I make a public demonstration of it. That is how the longshoremen threw me in the bay and that is why I have been picketing the Post Office in protest against taking sides in this war when we are a neutral country and will get no good out of it, but only pay the bill, as usual.

FRED—But aren't you afraid that something might happen to you?

DAD—Freddy, the men who are drafted are not being asked whether they are afraid. They must prepare to risk their lives and perhaps become cripples for the rest of their lives and suffer. So in the matters of life and death, principle is the most important consideration. I could not do less than the boys who are ordered to risk all they have. And America cannot survive unless loyalty to the Constitution is stronger than any other consideration in our heart. It takes more courage to stand up for the Constitution when the courts are being packed, when laws are passed and enforced which deprive the citizen of his rights to work without paying tribute to labor racketeers; when bureaucrats set themselves above the authority of the congress and the courts; when the bonded debt soars and will make paupers of another third of the American people so we will have two thirds illclad, illfed and illhoused as taxes rise to pay for this war.

FRED—Dad, why do we have to bond the U. S.?

DAD—We don't have to bond the U. S.—but that is the scheme. If the young men must give up their jobs and train and risk their lives and their bodies, should they be sent into a shooting war, certainly the international bankers and the federal reserve bankers should not ask that they be paid a profit on financing those young men who are giving their all. The bankers, too, should be patriotic without any expectation of a profit and no interest should be paid them on defense bonds. That is what would be expected of bankers who claim that the country is in danger of being over-run by the Nazis.

FRED—But why don't they do it?

DAD—Because all wars are fought for the profit of the International Bankers and they are the only ones who are in danger of losing out if PEACE were to rule on earth. We are being warned in case of a shooting war, the bonded debt would rise to 200 billion dollars, which would bring the taxes in the U. S. on a par with England's taxes. That means that America would be reduced to the British level of life, while today the American living standard is the highest in the world. You children don't know what that means, but I do. I have lived under the British crown and I want none of it; that's why I came to the U. S.—I came over here right from British India. We don't want the poverty in the United States, which exists in British possessions and the slums of London and other cities. And that is all that I have in mind when I stand up publicly for our Constitution, with its tripple checks and balances to avoid the tyranny of bureaucracy and of packed courts and rubberstamp congresses. Of course, one man cannot do much, but I will never carry the shame Peter had to hide in his heart for many years for having denied his best friend in the hour of trial. Today every American has to decide where he stands and I am not afraid to come out publicly and show my colors. I am opposed to Communism and Stalin can never become my ally. The war in Europe is their baby, not ours.

Carrot Loaf

FRED—To about 2 large cupfuls of grated carrots add 2 cups of bread crumbs (grated toast) and 1 cup of chopped walnuts; while grating carrots, grate in one small onion. To this mixture add 3 tablespoons of vegetable oil and poultry seasoning, or sage to taste.—Mix well, put into well oiled baking dish and cook in a moderate oven for about 35 to 40 minutes. DAD—And now I shall read what Dr. Geo. Starr White says about stopping a craving for liquor. —"To destroy the craving for alcoholic liquors, nothing known can compare with pure honey. The strained honey should be eaten by the tablespoonful several times daily. Several glasses of pure water, preferably distilled water, should be drunk each day."—If you don't know where to get pure and undiluted honey, drop me a line.

British Hybrids Fear Peace

By H. D. Kissenger

KANSAS CITY,— The Anglo-Saxon wants peace with Germany, the English Jew does not. If Britons and Germans alone were involved, there would be a negotiated peace, for Germans and Englishmen are racial kinsmen. But there is a CROSSED section of population among the titled aristocracy, the off-spring principally of English fathers and Jewish mothers, that seems to hold the decision; they fear the imposition of Hitler's racial creed and the renovation of the Aryan racial tree in Albion. This fear prompts English papas and grandpapas of the mongrelized element to support the international war-mongers.

THESE EURASIANS HAVE WHITE BRITONS ON THE SPOT. This is the purpose of such interracial marriages,—to bemuse and befuddle Gentile mentality. Even a slight mixture of alien blood alters the political outlook of the individual because it alters one's nature and instincts themselves. Jewish Masonic teaching of racial equality is responsible largely for the conquest of Aryan thought not only in Britain but also in the U. S. Britons should remember that God never does anything by halves and should not place the security of their half-breeds before that of the Anglo-Saxon Race. God's creations are undiluted. There are three great units in life,—Church, State and Race; the latter is by far the most important because as a race goes, so goes BOTH church and state. Hence the trouble with Britons is, THEIR RACE ITSELF IS CHANGING.

The Rothschilds, thru market speculations in the Waterloo era, bought up the wealth of Britain for a tithe of its value. The impoverished Britons married off their titled scions of nobility to their Jewish overlords in order to get back enough of their own money to "move in society". Instead of recovering their stocks and bonds by the same method that deprived them of their wealth,—viz, CONFISCATION, they bonded their Saxon off-spring in the loins of alien money changers. It's a terrible price British Royalty has paid to maintain their position, their castles, yachts, foxes and hounds. It is time for John Bull, like the prophet of old, to rent his mantel and clean the British House of "strange wives" and of children who are stranger still, for a hybrid blasphemes the handiwork of God for God intended for every race to maintain its original or first estate.

Titled English families are becoming weak thru intermarriage and Jewish contamination and face the fate of Persian, Greek and Roman civilizations. The same malady destroyed the greatness of Spain and Portugal where racial differences were additionally obscured by those of religion. The New Pontiff marks the beginning of a New Era,—He has said that ethnological differences must be taken into account in the destiny of nations. It has long been the Jewish method, in the attainment of world control, to penetrate into privileged circles of all nations for there political power is greatest. It is this power, esconded in key positions, that is being used to thwart the will to peace of British primates.

"de Aryan Comments" Vitamin Racket

(Over KGB — 1360 — Tuesday 8:30)

FRED—I have read in the papers where Dr. D. C. Smith, University of Maryland physiologist, reported in a speech at the Scripps Institution of La Jolla, that carotin produces Vitamin A in the liver. He said that people who suffered from hyper-thyroid afflictions should be given large doses of vitamin A. Then why don't they eat plenty of carrots?

DAD—Dr. Smith told the truth. I read that report. It's one of the rare cases where the truth is being reported to the public. You see, he said plainly that carotin is contained in carrots and other vegetables and that when eaten the liver converts it into Vitamin A. Generally the doctors and the sellers of patent medicines, don't tell the public that there are no vitamins in their remedies, but that the liver converts the remedy into vitamins. So you can realize the difference. If vitamins can be sold in bottles or pills, that's one thing. But if vitamins are not in the pills but result from the re-action of the liver and of other organs to the things one eats, then the people who imagined they bought vitamins were just fooled.

FRED—I wish you would explain it to me a little better and more in detail, dad.

DAD—Take a gasoline motor for an example. If your spark plugs are fouled, you will have no pep in your car. Now pep is vitamin. Suppose somebody sold you a pill to put into the cylinder and called it pep pills, would that give pep to the car?

FRED—It might, daddy, if the pill were to clean out the sparkplugs and set them properly.

DAD—Now you are talking. The pep is not in the pills but results from the proper function of the sparkplugs. Suppose instead of dropping magic pills into your motor, you got some elbow grease and cleaned up the sparkplugs, would that not pep up the motor?

FRED—I am sure it would.

DAD—But if the fellow who has pep pills for sale, were to tell you to clean the sparkplugs for pep, he could not sell you his pills.

FRED—So that's what the racket is about?

DAD—Yes.—But Dr. Smith gave it away. He said carotin is converted in the liver into Vitamin A. Now there is no such thing as vitamin A.

FRED—Isn't there? Why do they call it so if there is none?

DAD—I'll show you. Suppose your spark-plugs are working O. K. but the water is low in your batteries. Now a slick fellow who knows what an ignorant boob most people are would get himself some ounce capsules containing distilled water and would label them vitamin B capsules. If the spark plugs are fouled, that means lack of vitamin A. If the water is low in the batteries that means no vitamin B. And if every boob went & bought a dozen & more B capsules & punctured them & let the magic vitamin B flow into the battery cells of their car, the car would work again and the miracle has been performed by the pep capsules. Your motor picked up pep again. And if you have not enough oil so your bearings burn up, what you need is vitamin O. That's how a slick mechanic could fool people into buying all sorts of capsules. But they take a can of oil and puncture it and don't pretend to sell you a pep can of vitamin O. Just so, don't be fooled by any of the stuff they sell you at the drugstores or health food stores. There is no such thing as canned pep, or pep in pills or pep in packages. Put the proper things into the car engine, keep it in proper condition and your car is full of pep when the sparg plugs spark and the battery works and the carburetor feeds and the clutch grips.

FRED—Then Vitamin A, B, C and so forth are nothing but words?

DAD—Yes, Freddy, that's all they are. What people need is carotin, from carrots, and alkalies from citrus fruits and organic salts from celery and all along the line they must keep their inner organs clean and not fouled and clogged up and then the body itself produces the vitamins, just as Dr. Smith said about the liver using carotin to normalize the hyper-thyroid condition.

FRED—Mother wrote a recipe how to make a good carrot loaf for Vitamin A, dad, shall I read it?

DAD—Sure, read it, but let me tell you that cooked and baked carrots have no longer the same medicinal properties for the creation of vitamin as raw carrots have.

MAZDAZNAN PHILOSOPHY

In the attempt to better our conditions we are not to loose sight of the world before us at the time, lest our ends be gained at the expense of another's loss, whose plea for justice will fall upon our head sooner or later and result in our downfall.

defendants, Henry Sorge, 33, a disciple of the order named by Miss Webber as her attacker, and the Reorganized Mazdaznan Temple Association of Associates of God.

The girl and her mother, Mrs. Ida Weber, testified that Sorge harmed the girl at the instigation of Dr. Otoman Zar-Adusht Ha'nish, late leader of the cult. Sorge denied the charge.

SMEARING THE ARYANS

For a long time the woman hoped to bring the suit and consulted attorneys. They refused to handle it. Finally the Jewish boycott of "Aryans" materialized.

Mazdaznan teaches race purity for Aryans as the requisite "sine qua none" for materialization of the Kingdom of God on Earth. Each race must keep itself free from intermixing with other races, that each may bring out the best so they won't interfere with each other. It is not a teaching of race hatred, but a teaching of race respect. No self-respecting racial looks for a mate except to one who is his equal. In this way each race fulfills the purpose God gave it when He Created them different and distinct.

But the Aryan race teachings have been perverted by Nietzsche as well as by Jews and others. Violence was injected in place of respect. The Mazdaznan doctrine of self-containment and unfoldment of the talents God implanted in each particular group, was perverted into jealousy of "superiority". Disregarding the fact that a white person is unhappy in an atmosphere not genuine to her own characteristics; that a negro feels out of place among habits and ambitions, as well as ideals inherent in the whites; that Mongolians have a different outlook upon life from any other race; intermixture of races produced criminal results. The lawless desires, the animal sex passion which over-ruled the limits God set by the clear definition even of color, so that "the dumb may

City Must Not Deal With Labor Unions

The city civil service commission endeavors to obtain complete information on wage rates for various positions & welcomes advice from any citizen, "whether he be an employer, a member of a union or a union official".

This report was made to the city council by Russell T. Bailey, city personnel director, in reply to a request to the council from C. Leon de Aryan, weekly newspaper publisher, for an investigation of alleged recognition by the municipality "of a labor organization".

de Aryan cited a press dispatch from Berkeley which he said quoted the city attorney of that municipality as having informed the Berkeley city manager that he did not have the "right to recognize, negotiate, bargain or otherwise deal with any union as the representative of any city employees."

The publisher contended that Bailey dealt "with representatives of labor unions concerning wage scales for city employees", and that "the union agent was not a city employe, but was recognized as representing them".

Denial Made

In a letter to de Aryan and the council, Bailey countered with the statement his department "does not in any case negotiate or bargain in fixing the salaries of classified employes of the city."

Councilmen directed that both communications be filed.

not fail to see the line", produced lawless people. Among them the mongrel tribes of Judah, as well as other Semitic or Turkish, Tartar and Mongolian "invaders".

The teachings of racial purity, as conveyed by the inimitable Mazdaznan outlines, have been misquoted and perverted through the ages by licentious writers, rabbis and leaders. The whole Pentateuch and Rabbinic Talmud is a product of this criminal perversion. The Koran is full of it; therefore they sanction murder of animals for food, for religious sacrifice and murder in the name of "religion". They have "holy wars".

To the extent that Mongolian blood runs in the German people, they, too, have fallen prey to this notion of racial "superiority" and violence in holy wars of extermination of the "enemy". To that extent Nietzsche built up his sophistry of the "superman". Mazdaznan disabuses the mind of such monstrosities. As a result the Nazis confiscated the property of the German Mazdaznan Association and proscribed the dissemination of its teachings. Nazis must have war and violence. They are not Aryan. They are still Mongols in their methods and a handful, a small minority of this Mongolian breed, succeeded to drive all of Aryan Germany to the slaughterpen and make Europe a shambles again, playing into the hands of the International Jewish instigators of this world massacre.

Not till the Jewish boycott of all "Aryans" materialized in the U. S. that a Jewish lawyer took up the suit of Irma Weber against Henry Sorge. Here was a chance for the Kikes to smear the original Aryans. It backfires.

The Aryan vs. Kikes

Mazdaznan does not teach race hatred. Mazdaznan does not teach race supremacy of the white man over the colored man. Mazdaznan teaches non-encroachment of one race into the realm of the other. It teaches respect, self-respect, for each race, because God made them different and distinct and gave them different ways of life. It teaches that even after they intermingled it is still possible to save the original purpose of God by systematic regeneration, and by self-discipline. It does not teach jealousy of one racial against the other, or arrogance of one above the other. Bear in mind that superior people do not have to make a vulgar display of superiority. A wise man does not have to take a club to knock respect for his wisdom into the heads of others. Superiority proves itself without bombast. The effect, the fruits speak, naturally.

Contrary to the teachings of the Nazis, Himmler and the Gestapo, the Aryan does not hate the Jew, even though he refuses to submit to his arrogance where it attacks the white man. The Mazdaznan Aryan, does not have to submit

Mr. Henderson's Bright Young Men

By The Independent Petroleum & Consumers Association

Though Mr. Leon Henderson would create the impression that he is entirely devoted to saving money — lowering prices, etc., a look at the salaries to be paid his bright young men indicates he is to be quite free and easy with the taxpayers' money—your savings and mine!

MR. O'NEAL: What is the nature of the work that these men will do? Will these men contact men in the industry and negotiate with them, discuss lines of procedure, or will they be the men who will do mostly research and analysis?

MR. HENDERSON: No. They are men who actually make that day-to-day adjustment with the price ceiling. They are the men who prepare, together with the lawyers, a price schedule, as we call it.

MR. O'NEAL: Do they do any of the actual negotiating?

MR. HENDERSON: Yes; they do.

MR. O'NEAL: Are they men who have had experience to any extent in that kind of work? I can see where they have had a scholarly background and experience on the technical side, but so far as negotiating with businessmen, have they had experience along that line, most of them?

MR. HENDERSON: No; they have not. But in each one of those units and sitting with them are men who have had.

(It is apparent that Mr. Henderson gives little or no consideration to practical experience—places little value upon it).

$3,769,462 is the amount of this budget for the fiscal year 1942.

1,395 new politically appointed jobs have been created.

Eighty of the Johnny-on-the-spot lads are to receive $4,000 and more per year; seven at $9,000 per year.

A partial list is printed below.

Note many of them have never been engaged in private industry during their entire lives—mostly "career men".

Note the handsome boosts in salaries many are receiving when you compare their last stipends against the amounts they are to be paid by their generous Uncle Sammy!

In an apparent effort to soften the shock, Mr. Henderson has made a lengthy explanation for his Santa Claus salaries before presenting the list. His statement on page 289 of the transcript reads:

"In obtaining personnel for those positions, which are most vital in the functioning of the organization, it is often necessary to pay somewhat higher salaries in order to attract competent individuals who have established positions elsewhere or who possess essential or unique qualifications. This is particularly true of the Office of Price Administration and Civilian Supply, which is a temporary emergency agency operating in a field that requires great technical skill. Further, it should be remembered that, in our effort to get experts who have an independent view, we have in some cases recruited from the colleges and universities. Salary scales in the academic world are notoriously low, normally far below that paid by private industry and the government for equivalent work. Individuals joining our staff from such sources have, therefore, in some cases been brought up to

to Jewish rule because in competition he can run circles around the Kike. He does not have to use violence and concentration camps to protect himself against the vile and unscrupulous Kike, because he can trip him up before the poor witted Jew can reach him effectively. Superior people prove it by the use of their mind. Only inferiority complexes react violently.

In fine, Mazdaznan teaches that the present International Jewish rule over the white nations is nothing but what they brought upon themselves because they are following the bloody laws of Rabbis, as set forth in the Old Testament under the guise of "religion", in place of putting into practice the Commandments and the example of Jesus, who was crucified by the Rabbis as their enemy, which He remains to this day, because He teaches Love and obedience to God, while the Talmud teaches hate, double crossing and murder.

BLACKMAIL OF MAZDAZNAN ASSOCIATION BACKFIRES

Million Dollar "Immorality" Suit Collapses

PART OF JEWISH SMEAR TO DISCREDIT "ARYANS"

For many years an unbalanced woman expected to be placed on "easy street" by hocus pocus. She was attracted, like so many of her kind, to activities which suckers interpret as "getting rich quick" by means of magic formulas and the repetition of certain words, etc. You find these half-wits everywhere, but especially in Los Angeles. They throng the meetings of Yogis, fill the halls of food fadists, hand over their money to "psycho-analysts" and to "astrologers" for having their "characteristics" pointed out to them by means of which they expect to become wealthy over night, since "God is Abundance" and we as His children are to share in it. All they expect is to enjoy the abundance but give no corresponding effort in the production of the abundance. By "divine" hocus pocus they believe to be able to "attract" a million dollars, just like that.

For many years this particular woman hunted hard for the gold pot at the end of her rainbow, but all she got is a wet blanket. While joining the throng of Mazdaznan worshippers, lead by the late Dr. O. Z. Hanish, the magic formulas turned out to be: HARD Work, application of intelligence, perseverance and self-discipline.

It simply "outraged" her to be told that nothing but hard work brings riches which nobody can take away from us; to be told that wealth comes "easy" only to those who have denied themselves the luxuries of self-indulgence, so that their energies are liberated for service in the universal plan of race progress, individualized in the Mazdaznan pupil. She was not going to be "disciplined" by training her mind and her desires to look pointedly to the LIGHT of God for guidance, instead of telling the Lord what she wanted Him to do for her, as all the nit-wits do when they "pray". Still, only the willing servant of the Lord's Will inherits His Kingdom.

The poor woman was "smarter" than that. Having been "outraged" in her expectations of getting rich by hocus pocus, she decided to stage one of her own. Seeing that the Mazdaznan leaders prospered in whatever enterprise they engaged, agriculturally, industrially and commercially, she decided that as a "member" of the Mazdaznan "cult" she was entitled to a cut-in. That she had no investment in the enterprises, that she was not engaged in doing the labors that made the success effective, never bothered her infantile mind. If they won't "shell out the shekels", she'd make them do it. The outcome was a $1,000,000 suit, charging that her daughter, Irma Weber, had been raped by Henry Sorge, while 11 years of age, seven years ago, as a matter of "religious initiation", thereby including the whole Mazdaznan Association of about 20,000 individuals in the suit.

JURY REFUSES DAMAGES IN L. A. ATTACK SUIT

LOS ANGELES.—A jury of seven men and five women rejected the $1,000,000 damage suit of Irma Weber, pretty high school girl who had charged she was attacked at the age of 11 by a follower of the Mazdaznan Religious Movement.

By a vote of 9 to 3 the jury returned a verdict in favor of the

Our Food

By Dr. O. Z. Ha'nish

Those of a Diviner and Higher Thought need no longer heed the commandment: "And all the seed-bearing fruit shall be meat unto you." They have used self-suggestion and claim to have outgrown all law. They no longer eat the hog, chicken-pot-pie and lamb-stew. They only eat the "thought" since they have got into Higher Thought, yet there is a great deal of fuss made with the cook, whenever the "thought" isn't prepared just in a way suiting their notion. Those minds may be in the Higher Thought but not of it, for as long as they continue to auto-suggest justification towards a criminal tendency, just that long they will delight in shedding innocent blood. That very class, when some murderous instinct kills their pet-dog, will raise a terrible howl for "justice", prosecuting the case to the fullest extent of law, to secure retribution. Why continue oneself to be hypnotized into unbalanced brain action, when nature tells us: "He who killeth an ox, is like unto him, who killeth a man." Why force ourselves to "believe" these illusions, springing from a fanciful state of undeveloped brain functions. Sooner or later the judgment will come upon us, where we are being held responsible for every deed, and "the wages of sin is death". And unceasingly "the blood of thy fellow-creatures cries out to heaven for justice."

You consider yourself justified to commit crime because of being in the Higher Thought? The Higher Thought will in no wise shield your criminal tendency. You will be held more accountable for every word and deed than those pretending no claims.

The last resort we seek for refuge in the upholding of our self-hypnotized, sinful state, is Science. How eagerly we absorb the statements made by these great scientists, that "we must have meat to keep up our strength and vitality, which is conducive to good health!" How we swell with pride in consideration of such "marvellous" discovery, strengthening us in our hypnotic state of unbalanced brain action. Of course science can only continue to give a "suggestion", were it more observant, it would know better than to merely set forth claims and assertions.

Meat, like all corpse-conditions, is the highest type of conscious cell-form, and as a matter of continued evolution, having followed through all the processes of fermentation, reaches that point, where it must go on through processes of disintegration, which in nature is very much similar to fermentation, but in effect entirely diametrical to the latter. The body, whether man or ox, whether killed by accident, an axe, knife, gun, or science—when it has breathed its last, becomes a corpse, and the only most befitting place for it is the graveyard—and not our stomach.

Meat will stimulate, thus force the heart to greater action, the same as salt, liquor, opiates, etc. It is a stimulant because of the nitrogen which our overworked organic system readily absorbs. But all stimulation, forcing the organs to action, can only be of detriment to our system, leaving it in a condition of stimulated starvation, increasing the desire for more food, until the foundation for a ravenous appetite is laid, introducing disease after disease, retarding the development of the brain functions, which hold the solution to our life-problem.

The consumption of flesh paves the way to intemperance—as will fermented bread-stuffs, condiments and over-eating. It induces counteracting conditions in the form of alcoholic drinks.

We do not entreat you to stop your criminal course for our sake, for all you do is for your own self. If you delight in the pleasures of sin, go right on. But when sorrow and sickness comes, when your "hidden forces" no longer respond to your demand, when all your "demonstrating" fails you, when "science" gives you the cold shoulder, and you anxiously call for "help", and that help is very slow coming, remember, that—"the blood of thy fellow-creatures crieth unto heaven for justice." You will continue to live in fear and trembling, until retribution is brought, and within your heart has become sacredly rooted—"And every herb bearing seed, and every fruit in which there is tree-yielding seed, shall be MEAT unto you!"

Tell me what you eat and I shall tell you who you are.

YOUR POSTURE AFFECTS YOUR HEAD

Suppose U set a nice piece of machinery out of level, or set a pendulum clock out of plumb. U know that the machine will not work well; and that the clock will refuse to go.

Dr. Geo. Starr White

That body of yours is the most intricate of any machine ever built. Nothing made by man can ever approach, in wonderful construction, just one of the billions of cells that make up your body. How many of us take care to carry the body erect? How can we expect to keep a normal circulation of fluids thru the body when it is "out of line"? How can we expect to give the lungs the air they require, if we stoop, or "slump"? Some of the worst cases of malnutrition and nervousness are caused by a faulty method of dressing, a habitually wrong posture, or from high heels.

How can anyone expect the body to be at its best when thrown out of line by killing high heels so many women wear? No woman would ever wear a high heel, if she realized just what it did to her pelvic organs, to her spine, and to her head. High heels will bring about some of the worst adhesions in the pelvis. Some of the terrible cases of constipation that I have to treat are caused by poorly fitting clothes or high heels.

The wearing of a tight belt about the body, as many men do, helps throw the intestines downward and produce a "dropping" of the stomach and intestines, and with them all the contents of the abdomen. This "sagging" condition is known as "enteroptosis". Try to throw the chest upward and outward. When U sit or walk, keep the chest up and breathe with the abdomen—keeping the chest expanded all the time, while exhaling as well as when inhaling. This abdominal, or diaphragmatic, breathing does wonders in preventing and curing all nervous conditions, as well as the constipation and poor circulation that usually go with "nervousness".

Whatever became of the more abundant life we were promised? Has it been plowed under too?

I sez I dont know what I can do but I can keep hollering, and fighting the damned British . . . I think its a dirty deal . . . letting our good American people go hungry taking the food right out of their mouths to give it to the British I sez . . . Then Fred sez . . . You know Alice When Winston Churchill said "gimme 7 billions" . . . Mr. Rosenfeld never blinked his eyelashes . . . at all . . . Just think what a lot of loyalty he could have dug up if he had taken that money and given it to the starving . . . AMERICAN PEOPLE!" But I sez I dont think he wants the American people to be happy and well fed . . . they wouldnt want to vote for him then . . . the idee is to keep them half starved and leaning on HIM . . . if they dont vote for him they will not get $41.60 a month to feed a family of five!

He sez "Alice you dont think they really elected him because they wanted him . . . they just elected him because they wanted something to eat . . . thats all . . . He hypnotized them with his promises and he didnt have no more intention of keeping them promises than nothing in the world. His plans was all in the bag . . . long before election . . . When he said he would "just put the boys into TRAINING . . . he never had NO intention of letting them out later at all . . . I knew that all the time he sez . . . But he knew at that time . . . if he told them the truth they would rise up and "smack him down" . . . He wanted to stall em along . . . and dope them with his silver tongue till he could set the wheels in motion for the wah . . . and then . . . he would say "Well NOW we are in DANGER and you MUST "save your country" . . . I sez well we are in a danger aint we and he sez YES . . . and HOW But Mr. Rosenfeld put us there and is dragging us by our heels . . . right across the pond to English soil to help Winston Churchill.

Fred gets up and lights a cigarette . . . and he sez I wish that you would calm down and let me sleep . . . if this keeps up I will go batty myself . . . I gotta work tomorrow baby . . . I need sleep . . . I sez yes & your dollar aint worth much now . . . Do you know what it costs me now to get a decent meal . . . he sez No I dont and I sez 26 cents more per meal than it did a year ago . . . and the stuff isnt as good and I cant get even what I need . . . either . . . no he sez . . . NO CHEEZE . . . I sez our rent has been jumped ten dollars in less than a year . . . and the landlord sez yesterday that "on account of the high cost of living" . . . he must raise us five more NEXT month . . . "Fred sez . . . Alice . . . I wish I could get out of this country and go to South America . . . and get away from all this mess . . . Mebbe I can get a few dollars together and maybe we can go would you go with me if I could get the money . . . I didnt know what to say right off the bat I kept still a while and then I sez Fred . . . I was borned on this soil . . . and its the dearest place on earth to me . . . I'll be damned if I give it up to them Britishers. And he sez all right now thats all settled . . . and let me go to sleep . . . Alice and I did . . .

By Charles H. Ingersoll
(Of Dollar Watch Fame)

Editor Beckwith, in his Stockton Forum, refers to a double-action Ingersoll. He calls me 'the safer and more dangerous Ingersoll'. He prints nearly all I say in Number 47 'democracy', about wasting time on Interest. Then he says he has tried for years with his long articles, to keep me straight. But he takes up only one point of many I make—i. e. that if a man stirred the earth with a stone, instead of buying a plow and a horse or tractor to pull it, he would have no interest to pay; so it would be no essential of production—only an alternative in speeding up.

The only clear point I extract from what he says is that a stone is capital, which is one of the most astonishing things that this economist ever said to me! Since when is a stone wealth, produced by labor? I am making this Exhibit 48 in the Beckwith Museum.

Harold Ruggs' 'Fullest and frankest discussion' of the problems of democracy, reminds us of the President's decade of 'fullest and frankest experiments' in outworn failures like AAA, NLRB, etc. (costing 25 to 140 billions). And Harold's expansive smile also reminds us of that of the President, and Willkie's; and the probability that both will easily laugh off all the mud-slinging, as well as serious criticism.

Sure, this is a free country, and has a free press, platform, and school system. Our educators must have open minds—just like sieves. Our biggest ones—the deans—will tell you (if they are candid, as some are) 'No, we don't teach any economics (as a science). We just give them all there is and let them get what they can out of it'. They call that Socratic teaching. And don't we know that we get more—and better—education, extra-curricularly, than out of all the texts?

Rugg, I think, is 'another natural product of an educational system grown up to weeds. There's a lot in such a system to poke fun at, and much of his text is just talking about idiosyncracies of education, which, by the way, is its outstanding idiosyncrasy—talky-talk.

For example, having outworn the Bill of Rights and such talk about democracy, and not having discovered that there is an economic science that should be integral with democracy, chatty textbook writers, like Rugg, regale their admiring victims with such irrelevancies as witch-hunting, immigration, invention, industry, etc. and plenty of reference to the growth of social mindedness and failure of rugged individualism, laissez faire, and the old Jefferson style of democracy.

To succeed, reform should be simple. That's why Wilson's name will not be the greatest in world history. His great conception of world peace and integration was not simple.

The world is in a mess today—not so much because of evil designs, as because of impractical ones. Liberal, progressive, New Deal reforms are, in number, dominant, and would guide the world forces at this crucial time, if they could be effectively directed. But they are a jumble. They have grown up from Old Deal entanglements and have collided with the New Deal culture that has been for several decades incubating from the Marxian doctrines in our highly developed educational plant. And it's a clear case of confusion worse confounded. The whole action and reaction is against ourselves, instead of against our enemies. It is an attempt to reform society, instead of making it reform itself.

SECRET GOVERNMENT UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Occasionally an item appears in the news that reveals how democratic despotism is being clandestinely and unconstitutionally imposed upon the people. The columnist for a Los Angeles suburban newspaper, dated May 15, 1941, writes:

"One night last week some of Huntington Park's elite held a bridge party at the home of a local professional man. After a late lunch was served; the men gathered in the living room and discussed national problems, as is man's wont. One man was particularly bitter in his DENUNCIATION OF THE ADMINISTRATION and DID NOT HESITATE TO ACCUSE CERTAIN POLITICIANS AND OFFICIALS of the government of being un-American and radical. One of the guests kept a discreet silence until the party was ready to disband and then he said:

"I have been an under cover agent for the Federal Government the past two years and am spending my time reporting on evidences of disloyalty and fifth column activity in unsuspected places."

There is one man who wonders if there was anything personal in the statement."

The above excerpt discloses:

First, That taxpayers are paying the salaries of underhanded snoopers and spies and tattle-tales to report on them while exercising their Constitutional rights of free-speech.

Second, That the Administration at Washington has set up a Soviet OGPU or Nazi Gestapo in the United States, and are using these Federal detectives as overbearing, threatening and browbeating agents to scare and terrorize into cowering submission and surrender of their rights as citizens, all who might have the courage and patriotism to protest against those politicians and officials who neither respect their oaths of office nor tell the truth. All loyal Americans will refuse to be intimidated, remembering that that GREAT American, Abraham Lincoln, analyzed this situation accurately and said:

"There is an important sense in which the Government is DISTINCT FROM the Administration. One is perpetual; the other temporary and changeable. A man may be LOYAL to his Government and yet oppose the PECULIAR principles and methods of the Administration."

If Abraham Lincoln had been present at the above party and said those words in front of the F. B. I. operative, would he have been scowled at, and tagged as a "disloyal fifth columnist"?

What would this secret talebearer have reported to his chief bureaucrat, if George Washington had been present and said this portion of his Farewell Address:

"Real patriots who may RESIST the INTRIGUES of the favorite (in power) are liable to become SUSPECTED and odious, while its tools and dupes usurp the applause and confidence of the people (and cause them) to surrender their interests."

Or, suppose that Alexander Hamilton had been present and had said:

"The liberty of the press" (and of speech) "consists of publishing the TRUTH from good motives and for justifiable ends, THO IT REFLECTS ON THE GOVERNMENT, ON MAGISTRATES or individuals."

Just after President Roosevelt had "cracked down" on Col. Lindbergh for using his Constitutional right of free speech to criticize the war-mongering of the Administration, an Editorial in the Chicago Tribune states:

"Mr. Roosevelt's practice of trying to STOP DISCUSSION falls short of continental European practices ONLY BY LACKING THE SECRET POLICE, the neighborhood spy, and the concentration camp."

Now, judging from the opening quotation, the United States may only lack (?) the concentration camps.

Supposing Congressman Joseph Martin had been at this private party and had said, as he did on April 29th, 1941:

"Another thing we must all do—we must foil the subtle and clever schemes of those who would CHANGE our FORM OF GOVERNMENT into some brand of CENTRALIZED ABSOLUTISM . . . The schemes are BEING PLANNED; the PLOTTERS ARE AT WORK, make no mistake about that."

"There has been built up by means of clever propaganda the claim that it is unpatriotic, un-American, treasonable, to dare question a single statement or act of the administration in regard to its policies on defense. That is simply the device of political bureaucrats who do not want the facts to be known to the people. WE MUST BE READY TO FACE THE BITTER CRITICISM OF THOSE WHO WANT TO CONCEAL their acts and policies when WE DEMAND that they be known."

Would the "undercover" slinking sleuth have spent some of his time "reporting" the Congressman's "disloyalty"?

All Hail, to the intelligent and brave patriot who stood forth in the Light and said his say, in spite of the things that crawl in the dark.

British Secret Service Report 1919

International Industrial Council

We have attempted to create a Common Council by which industrial patronage could be judiciously distributed to pacify and to placate such selfish interests as now threaten to disturb our plans. So long as we allow industrial interests to satiate their appetite for profit at our expense, at the expense of those we govern, or, as here, at the expense of those we rule but do not govern, it matters not to them what allegiance prevails.

The intrinsic patriotism of American industrialists seems to be remarkably low; indeed, it rarely exceeds 1.98 per cent of the normal average of the population. Investigation has clearly demonstrated (a) that profits increasing in geometrical progression augment in arithmetical progression the coefficient of allegiance to the country of their origin; and (b) that profits decreasing in arithmetical progression diminish in geometrical progression that coefficient of allegiance. (Note on the Profit-Patriotism-Ratio, Appendix 310.) The origin of the profits may be either domestic, or foreign sources, markets or labour; to the country of origin in every case allegiance conforms. In exchange for industrial allegiance we are offering opportunities for profits in Mexico, China, and in Russia.

In Mexico, our friends made a tentative adventure with the gallant Blanquet; but it miscarried, perhaps, owing to a slight misunderstanding between the bond interests and the industrial interests. However we are quietly continuing our work in Mexico until the U. S. Government shall be put in a position to take it over. An American war with Mexico would cost us nothing; it would satisfy certain American industrial interests; it would guarantee our title to the Mexican oil fields; it would humble, by impoverishing, this purse proud people; it would give us an opportunity to show the American that he—isolated in the world—needs our protection against our ally, Japan; and, while America was busy warring, we would enjoy a clear field in the European, African, and Asiatic trade, together with the monopoly of the markets of a south America hostile to the Monroe If our "form of government" is to be preserved, there will have to be many like him.

That which Congressman Martin called "centralized absolutism" and Communist Lenin called "dictatorship of the proletariat", is being secretly clamped on Americans, is becoming more evident every day. In the "Catholic Tidings" of May 2nd, 1941, Rev. Edward Lodge Curran is reported to have sent a letter to all the Congressmen about the recent notorious Treaty about Iceland, which the President made with Denmark's representatives. After quoting Sec. 2, Art. 2, of the Federal Constitution—

"He (the President) shall have power, BY AND WITH THE ADVICE AND CONSENT OF THE SENATE, to make treaties, PROVIDED TWO-THIRDS OF THE SENATORS CONCUR . . ."

Rev. Curran wrote:

"Does not the senate realize that the FIRST STEP in the formation of a DICTATORSHIP is for the executive department TO IGNORE the rights and powers of the legislative department?"

In the April 30th, 1941 issue of the "Christian Century", the Editor writes:

"Last week authority was given Mr. Leon Henderson to fix prices, and he promptly began by establishing a ceiling on steel. The grant of power which Mr. Henderson is now exercising did NOT however, COME FROM CONGRESS. It was handed down BY President Roosevelt. Senator Taft pointedly asks why, IF THIS is possible, the President does not send Congress home and RULE BY DECREE."

The Los Angeles "Times" of May 2nd, 1941, quotes Senator Taft as saying further:

"If the President can create an office, appoint one of his henchmen WITHOUT CONFIRMATION by the Senate, and authorize him to fix prices WITHOUT ANY STATUTORY AUTHORITY, there is ABSOLUTELY NO LIMIT TO EXECUTIVE POWER in the United States."

For several months there have been those who have said: "The United States is in the European War, AND DON'T KNOW IT." It is also possible that the United States IS UNDER A TRAITOROUS DICTATOR'S DESPOTISM, and DON'T KNOW IT?

The Constitution of the United States was the result of the practical idealism and wisdom of Christian men who largely adhered to the pure and undiluted teachings of the Old and New Testaments. If our hallowed American Constitution has been deposed from power, it has been trampled under foot by anti-Constitutionalists who ARE unassimilated European and Asiatic anti-Christians as well.

Doctrinaries of Democracy. For these reasons, our Press is fully reporting Mexican outrages, but a strange apathy seems to have fallen on the people, an apathy from which only Border raids or special atrocities will arouse them.

Obviously time is needed to satisfy the demands of the American industrialists and to consolidate our hold on him through foreign sources and markets. Meanwhile, labor is encroaching on his profits; and the industrialist is seeking from his Government compensation through us; and our fiscal agents, in spite of their control of the industrial credit system, have failed to raise the profit-patriotism co-efficient to the level of Imperial unity.

Below that level, Imperial unity can not be securely established upon the debris of the Constitution here. We will not passively permit this unity to be now menaced when it is all but perfect. Has not America while still maintaining an outward show of independence yielded to our wishes in the Panama Canal Tolls and Canadian Fishers' disputes—as was fitting and filial? Was not America happy to fight our war in Europe? Was not America, like Canada, willing not only to pay her own war expenses but also to loan us money for ours? Was not America like Canada, content to seek nothing in return for her war duty, so long as the Motherland was completely indemnified in Egypt, and the rest of Africa, in Persia, Mesopotamia, Syria, and elsewhere. Was not America as proud to be Honoured by knighthood, and lesser titular distinctions, as Canada was; or rather more proud? Has not President Wilson cancelled the big Navy programme, and dutifully conceded to us the command of the seas, confident that we shall defend America against all future foes that may threaten our supremacy, just as we defended America and Canada against Germany? In matters lingual, legal, and financial, fiscal, commercial, social, evangelical, administrative, martial, naval, educational—are not in all these matters the established relations of America to England, in kind—if not precisely in degrees—identical with the relations of the other colonies and dominions to the Crown? Indeed, I might justifiably sustain the thesis that soidisant American Republic is now more happily and more closely bound to the Empire than are, for example, the ungrateful and insolent colonies which lately were the Boer Republics.

As long as President Wilson with our Canadian born Secretary of the Interior Mr. Franklin Lane, with our Scotch born Secretary of Labor, Mr. W. B. Wilson, and with our London born Mr. Samuel Gompers, now controls the Administration, Imperial unity will daily grow more intimate and more perfect. But I regret to inform you that our Committee on American Elections has reported (Appendix 38) that no matter how lavishly we finance the next election, the Wilson Administration will pass, and with it, perchance, that absolute administrative control over the Legislature, which has meant so much to us. Wilful, wanton and wicked men will unite in the next election with Labour and those industrialists whose profit-patriotism ratio has been allowed to fall below the threshold of loyalty to imperial unity. These combined forces of disorder will seek to elect a Legislature which will attempt to make the Administration responsible to it, instead of to us and our auxiliaries, and will strive to rend the bonds which bind this colony to the Motherland, for the sole, selfish and seditious purpose of erecting a separate, national, economic unit, independent of us—and even perhaps, competing with us. We must, therefore, hasten to remove from this Legislature, with the aid of our supporters here, such of its powers as could be used against imperial Unity. In other words we must quickly act to transfer its dangerous sovereignty from this colony to the custody of the Crown. We must, in short, now bring America within the Empire. God helping us, we can do no other. The first visible step in this direction has been taken; President Wilson has accepted and sponsored the plan for a League of Nations which we prepared for him. We have wrapped this plan in the Peace Treaty so that the world must accept from us the League or a continuance of the war. The League is in substance the Empire with America admitted on the same basis as our other colonies.
